1.0 POLICY:

Metro Technology Centers is committed to maintaining an environment free from discrimination, harassment, retaliation, intimidation and/or threatening behavior, and free of unnecessary disruption for students, employees and stakeholders. Metro Technology Centers does not condone and has policies and procedures in place to safeguard employees and students from:

1. Discrimination: unfair treatment based on the following real or perceived factors: race, color, national origin, sex, gender, gender expression or identity, sexual orientation, age, veteran status, religion, pregnancy, or genetic information, or disability. Refer to BP-2031 for the complete policy.
2. Harassment: repetitive, unwelcome conduct (either real or perceived) that may be based on, but not limited to: race, color, national origin, sex, gender, gender expression or identity, sexual orientation, age, veteran status, religion, pregnancy, or genetic information, disability.
3. Disability Harassment: unwanted, exploitive, or abusive conduct toward an individual who has an actual or perceived disability which has the purpose or effect of unreasonably or substantially interfering with an employee's work performance or a student's educational performance, or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive environment.
4. Sexual Harassment: unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature which (i) is made an explicit or implicit term or condition of an employee's employment or a student's ability to obtain an education; (ii) is used as a basis for decisions impacting either an employee's employment or a student's education; or (iii) has the purpose or effect of unreasonably or substantially interfering with an employee's work performance or a student's educational performance, or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive environment.
5. Retaliation: any negative conduct which is taken in response to an individual's complaint of harassment, discrimination, or based upon their participation in any investigation of a harassment or discrimination complaint.
6. Threatening Behavior: any pattern of behavior or isolated action, whether or not it is directed at another person, that a reasonable person would believe indicates potential for future harm to students, school personnel, or school property.

Examples of behaviors which may constitute discrimination, harassment, retaliation, intimidation, and/or threatening behavior include, but are not limited to, such things as overlooking an employee for promotion based on disability, declining to enroll a student based on age or gender, making derogatory comments or slurs based on socio-economic background, physical, verbal or psychological intimidation, stalking, unwelcome texts of a sexual nature, or unwelcome physical conduct.
